(4) Despite subrule \(3\)\(a\), \(b\) and \(c\), the Association is not to pay a person any amount under that subrule unless the Association or committee has first approved that payment.

(5) Despite subrule \(3\)\(d\), the Association is not to appoint or nominate a member of the Association under that subrule to an office in respect of which remuneration is payable unless the Association or committee has first approved –

(a) that appointment or nomination; and

(b) the receipt of that remuneration by that member.

7. Accounts of receipts and expenditure

(1) True accounts are to be kept of the following:

(a) each receipt or payment of money by the Association and the matter in respect of which the money was received or paid;

(b) each asset or liability of the Association.

(2) The accounts are to be open to inspection by the members of the Association at any reasonable time, and in any reasonable manner, determined by the committee.

(3) The Treasurer of the Association is to keep all accounting books, and general records and records of receipts and payments, connected with the business of the Association in the form and manner the committee determines.

(4) The accounts, books and records are to be kept at the Association's office or at any other place the committee determines.

8. Banking and finance

(1) On behalf of the Association, the Treasurer of the Association is to –

(a) receive any money paid to the Association; and

(b) immediately after receiving the money,

(i) if the amount is greater than $10, issue an official receipt in respect of the money, signed by the Treasurer or another committee member authorised by the Committee, identifying the date, payer name and purpose of the money, with a copy kept by the Treasurer; otherwise

(ii) if the amount is $10 or less; either issue a receipt as above or note the equivalent information on an income sheet kept with the attendance register brought to practices or one kept with the CDs; and

(c) cause the money to be paid into the account opened under subrule \(2\) as soon as practicable after it is received.

(2) The committee is to open with an authorised deposit-taking institution an account in the name of the Association.

(3) The committee may –

(a) receive from an authorised deposit-taking institution a cheque drawn by the Association on any of the Association's accounts with the authorised deposit-taking institution; and

(b) release or indemnify the authorised deposit-taking institution from or against any claim, or action or other proceeding, arising directly or indirectly out of the drawing of that cheque.

(4) Except with the authority of the committee, a payment of an amount exceeding $20 is not to be made from the funds of the Association otherwise than by cheque drawn on the Association's account or electronic transfer from the Association's account.

(5) The committee may provide the Treasurer with an amount of money to meet urgent expenditure, subject to any conditions the committee may impose in relation to the expenditure.

(6) A cheque is not to be drawn on the Association's account except for the purpose of making a payment that has been authorised by the committee.

(7) A cheque, draft, bill of exchange, promissory note or other negotiable instrument is to be –

(a) signed by the Treasurer or, in the Treasurer's absence, by any other member, or members, of the committee the committee nominates for that purpose; and

(b) countersigned by another nominated committee member.

(8) Each electronic withdrawal transaction from the Association's account must be approved by:

(a) the Treasurer or, in the Treasurer's absence, by any other member, or members, of the committee the committee nominates for that purpose; and

(b) by another nominated committee member.

9. Auditor

(1) At each annual general meeting, the members of the Association present at the meeting are to appoint a person as the auditor of the Association, unless rule 10A applies.

(2) If an auditor is not appointed at an annual general meeting under subrule \(1\), the committee is to appoint a person as the auditor of the Association as soon as practicable after that annual general meeting.

(3) The auditor is to hold office until the next annual general meeting and is eligible for re-appointment.

(4) The first auditor –

(a) may be appointed by the committee before the first annual general meeting; and

(b) if so appointed, holds office until the first annual general meeting unless earlier removed by a resolution of the members of the Association at a general meeting.

(5) If the first auditor is appointed by the committee under subrule \(4\)\(a\) and subsequently removed at a general meeting under subrule \(4\)\(b\), the members of the Association, at that general meeting, may appoint an auditor to hold office until the first annual general meeting.

(6) Except as provided in subrule \(4\)\(b\), the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.

(7) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor, the committee is to appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.

10. Audit of accounts

(1) The auditor is to audit the financial affairs of the Association at least once in each financial year of the Association.

(2) The auditor, after auditing the financial affairs of the Association for a particular financial year of the Association, is to –

(a) certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Association; and

(b) at the next annual general meeting, provide a written report to the members of the Association present at that meeting.

(3) In the report and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor is to –

(a) specify the information, if any, that he or she has required under subrule \(5\)\(b\) and obtained; and

(b) state whether, in his or her opinion, the accounts exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Association according to the information at his or her disposal; and

(c) state whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Association have been observed.

(4) The Treasurer of the Association is to deliver to the auditor a list of all the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association.

(5) The auditor may –

(a) have access to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association; and

(b) require from any servant of the Association any information the auditor considers necessary for the performance of his or her duties; and

(c) employ any person to assist in auditing the financial affairs of the Association; and

(d) examine any member of the committee, or any servant of the Association, in relation to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association.

10A. Exemption under the Act relating to appointment of an Auditor

(1) For any financial year that the Association's revenue will not exceed $250,000 or the Association is otherwise exempt from the requirement to be audited by virtue of section 24(1B) or (1C) of the Act –

(a) an auditor is not required to be appointed for that financial year under rule 9 unless the Association elects to have the financial affairs of the Association for that financial year audited in accordance with the Act and these rules; and

(b) if an auditor is not appointed for a financial year by virtue of paragraph (a) –

(i) rules 9 and 10 do not apply in respect of the Association for that financial year; and

(ii) rule 11(5)(b), to the extent that it relates to an auditor, does not apply in respect of the annual general meeting held by the Association in respect of that financial year; and

(iii) rule 11(5)(d) does not apply in respect of the annual general meeting held by the Association in respect of that financial year.

11. Annual general meeting

- (1) The Association is to hold an annual general meeting each year.
- (2) An annual general meeting is to be held on any day (being not later than 3 months after the end of the financial year of the Association) the committee determines.
- (3) An annual general meeting is to be in addition to any other general meeting that may be held in the same year.
- (4) The notice convening an annual general meeting is to specify the purpose of the meeting.
- (5) The ordinary business of an annual general meeting is to be as follows:

 - (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting;
 - (b) to receive from the committee, auditor and servants of the Association reports on the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year of the Association;
 - (c) to elect the officers of the Association and the ordinary committee members;
 - (d) to appoint the auditor and determine his or her remuneration;
 - (e) to determine the remuneration of servants of the Association.
- (6) An annual general meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with rule 13.

12. Special general meetings

- (1) The committee may convene a special general meeting of the Association at any time.
- (2) The committee, on the requisition in writing of at least 10 members of the Association, is to convene a special general meeting of the Association.
- (3) A requisition for a special general meeting –

 - (a) is to state the objects of the meeting; and
 - (b) is to be signed by each of the requisitionists; and
 - (c) is to be deposited at the office of the Association; and
 - (d) may consist of several documents, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.
- (4) If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within 21 days after the day on which a requisition is deposited at the office of the Association, any one or more of the requisitionists may convene the meeting within 3 months after the day of the deposit of the requisition.

(5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists is to be convened in the same manner, as nearly as practicable, as the manner in which a special general meeting would be convened by the committee.

(6) All reasonable expenses incurred by requisitionists in convening a special general meeting are to be refunded by the Association.

13. Notices of general meetings

At least 14 days before the day on which a general meeting of the Association is to be held, the Public Officer of the Association is to serve written notice of the meeting on all members of the association by means listed in rule 31 specifying –

(a) the place, day and time at which the meeting is to be held; and

(b) the nature of the business that is to be transacted at the meeting.

14. Business and quorum at general meetings

(1) All business transacted at a general meeting, other than the ordinary business of an annual general meeting, is special business.

(2) Business is not to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members of the Association entitled to vote is present at the time the meeting considers that business.

(3) A quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting is seven (7) members of the Association, or one third of the current financial members, whichever is greater, entitled to vote.

(4) If a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of a general meeting, the meeting –

(a) if convened on the requisition of members of the Association, is dissolved; or

(b) if convened by the committee, is to be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and –

(i) at the same place; or

(ii) at any other place specified by the chairperson –

(A) at the time of the adjournment; or

(B) by notice in a manner determined by the chairperson.

(5) If at an adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

15. Chairperson at general meetings

At each general meeting of the Association, the chairperson is to be –

(a) the President; or

(b) in the absence of the President, a member of the Association elected to preside as chairperson by the members of the Association present and entitled to vote at the general meeting.

16. Adjournment of general meetings

(1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may adjourn the meeting with the consent of the members of the Association who are present and entitled to vote at the meeting, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.

(2) If a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting is to be given in the same manner as the notice of the original meeting.

(3) If a meeting is adjourned for less than 14 days, it is not necessary to give any notice of the adjournment or of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting.

17. Determination of questions arising at general meetings

(1) A question arising at a general meeting of the Association is to be determined on a show of hands.

(2) A declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been lost or carried, or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority, together with an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association, is evidence of that fact unless a poll is demanded on or before that declaration.

18. Votes

(1) On any question arising at a general meeting of the Association, a member of the Association (including the chairperson) has one vote only.

(2) All votes are to be given personally.

(3) Despite subrule \(1\), in the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson has a second or casting vote.

19. Taking of poll

If at a general meeting a poll on any question is demanded –

(a) the poll is to be taken at that meeting in the manner the chairperson determines; and

(b) the result of the poll is taken to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.

20. When poll to be taken

(1) A poll that is demanded on the election of a chairperson, or on a question of adjournment, is to be taken immediately.

(2) A poll that is demanded on any other question is to be taken at any time before the close of the meeting as the chairperson determines.

(b) one Treasurer;

(c) one Secretary.

(3) Rule 24\(2\), \(3\) and \(4\) applies, with all necessary modifications, to the election of persons to any of the offices referred to in subrule \(1\).

(4) Each officer of the Association is to hold office until the next annual general meeting after that at which he or she is elected and is eligible for re-election.

(5) If a casual vacancy in an office referred to in subrule \(1\) occurs, the committee may appoint one of its members to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting after the appointment.

23. Constitution of the committee

(1) The committee consists of –

(a) the officers of the Association; and

(b) five (5) other members elected at the annual general meeting.

(2) An ordinary committee member is to hold office until the next annual general meeting after that at which he or she is elected and is eligible for re-election.

(3) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of ordinary committee member, the committee may appoint a member of the Association to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting after the appointment.

24. Election of members of committee

(1) A nomination of a candidate for election as an officer of the Association, or as an ordinary committee member, is to be –

(a) made in writing, signed by 2 members of the Association and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the nomination); and

(b) delivered to the Public Officer of the Association at least 10 days before the day on which the annual general meeting is to be held.

(2) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the committee –

(a) the candidates nominated are taken to be elected; and

(b) further nominations are to be received at the annual general meeting.

(3) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies on the committee to be filled, the persons nominated are taken to be elected.

(4) If the number of nominations received exceeds the number of vacancies on the committee to be filled, a ballot is to be held.

(5) If the number of further nominations received at the annual general meeting exceeds the number of remaining vacancies on the committee to be filled, a ballot is to be held in relation to those further nominations.

(6) The ballot for the election of officers and ordinary committee members is to be conducted at the annual general meeting in the manner determined by the committee.

25. Vacation of office

For the purpose of these rules, the office of an officer of the Association, or of an ordinary committee member, becomes casually vacant if the officer or committee member –

(a) dies; or

(b) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration or estate for their benefit; or
